Town and Country.

THINK your graveyards.

The shapely graves in the streets are beautiful ornaments.

From 10 to 12 1/2 cents per dozen, according to locality.

In five weeks from next Monday the spring elections will occur.

The first court house in Monroe county, says the Spirit, cost $15,000.

What February lacks in days, it has been making up in weather.

There has been twenty-nine snow storms this far the present season.

PRODUCING ATTORNEY WEEKS, of Caldwell, is reported as seriously ill.

A DOUBLE TRACK is to be put down over the Pan-handle bridge at Steubenville.

The St. Clairsville schools vacated on Tuesday—because they had a right to do so.

SALE bills printed at the CHRONICLE office on short notice and at reasonable prices.

The wind storm on last Friday blew the roof off Burkhardt station, B. & C. railroad.

The county commissioners will meet in regular quarterly session on Monday, March 7th.

Orion, Whooping Cough and Bronchitis immediately relieved by Shiloh's Cure. Sold by Patterson & Sons.

THERE is an exodus of people from several localities in Monroe county for various points in the West.

If each friend of the CHRONICLE would send us one new subscriber, our paper will be proportionately better.

THAT HACKING CLOTH is so quickly cured by Shiloh's Cure, we guarantee it. At Patterson & Sons, St. Clairsville.

DID you ever observe that it takes a girl just twice as long to wash the front windows as it does the back windows.

CATABISM, health and sweet breath secured by Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy, price 35 cents. Need injector from At Patterson & Sons.

It is estimated that Wheeling merchants get $300,000 from Belmont for beer, groceries, provisions, &c., says the Independent.

JUDGE DRIGGS, and Judge Phillips, of Zanesville, will probably exchange places for the first week of the March term of court at Monroe.

ABOUT 800 tons of 75-pound steel rails will be put down the present season on the Panhandle, between Steubenville and Dennison.

SHILOH'S VITALIZER is what you need for constipation, loss of appetite, dizziness and all symptoms of dyspepsia; price 10 and 75 cents per bottle. At Patterson & Sons.

If some men would labor as diligently at some legitimate business as they do to catch on to a political office, they'd be millionaires in no time.

Our city dads might spend a few dollars profitably in sounding for expensive street crossings which were laid below the grade of the city.

Remove all impurities from the blood. Restore the nervous system. Regulate the liver, stomach and bowels. For sale by J. B. Hoot, St. Clairsville, Ohio.

The scholars of the Belmont public schools, are to give an entertainment in March, the proceeds to be applied to the purchase of books for the schools.

It is hoped that Arbor Day, will not be forgotten in Belmont county, especially by the people in the towns. Plant trees, because they adorn and beautify.

SAMUEL THORPAPAT, of Clarion, a veteran of the 116th O. V. I., has been granted a pension of $10 dollars per month and arrears, amounting to $1000.

In value the railways of the country are nearly one fifth of its entire property, and they employ directly a tenth of all persons engaged in profitable occupations.

IS THERE any good reason why a druggist who sells whisky the year around at single prices, or who offers a prescription should not sell the DOW LAW?

The industrial fair, which has been in progress in Wheeling during the past week, closed on Tuesday evening. The affair has been a success, netting from $1,000 to $2,000.

IS THERE anybody who can't sleep 'nights because the DOW LAW even though imperfect, relieves the tax-payers of Belmont county, to the amount of over $20,000 annually?

FOR RENT—The Sherman House, Martine Ferry, Ohio. For particulars, inquire of A. S. SHERMAN, Martine Ferry, Ohio.

REV. R. F. KEELER, preached a Washington birthday sermon at the First M. E. church, Belmont on Sunday, at the request of Spangler Post, G. A. R. and the post attended services in a body.

Mrs D. C. BOLTON, residing near Doras, 3 miles east of Barnesville, died on Sunday of last week from pulmonary trouble, aged 33 years. A husband and three small boys are bereft by her death.

The first of April move is now agitating the minds of many tenants. People who are reasonably well situated will do well to let "good enough alone," and remember that "a rolling stone gathers no moss."

ALEX. PORTERFIELD, of Smith township, delivered about 3500 pounds of wool to F. T. & Sons, in this place, on Monday. It required a team of six horses and a yoke of oxen to draw the wagon over the heavy roads.
